AND VICTORY SURE. KAISER DECLARES

Asserts Germans Are Fighting Against Superior Numbers, but Will Win.

THANKS HINDENBURG.

Says Very Mention of His Name Excites Admiration Throughout Nation.

LONDON, Jun 2 .- An Amsterdam despatch describes the recent visit paid by Emperor William to the headquarters of Field Marshal von Hindenburg, Commander-in-Chief in the Eastern war theatre. In welcoming the Emperor, Field Marshal von Hindenburg said:

"I can assure Your Majesty that we remember the advice of our fathers: Forward with God for King and Patherland."

The Emperor replied: "My dear Field Marshal, I thank you for the soldiers words wherewith you have saluted me. I came to the eastern front to express to you my thanks for the great achievements of last year. We are fighting against superior numbers, but this is nothing new to us. Providence has willed that we should be still here, and this has only served to spur us on to greater efforts.

"My armies will be victorious and with God's help will win an honorable peace, such as we desire.

The German Fatherland, my dear Field Marshal, will never forget your deeds and, as your War Lord and King, I thank you from the bottom of my heart. You have become a national hero, and whenever the name of von Hindenburg is spoken it excites admiration."

FIELD HEADQUARTERS OF THE EMERGENCY SERVICE CORPS. ERSKINE, N. J., June 2 .- At 6 o'clock this morning the thirty prettiest soldiers in the world rose at the call of reveille. Before 7 o'clock they bathed, dressed, cleaned up their tents, submitted them to police inspection and went through a brief drill. At seven they hungrily devoured the simple breakfast prepared by their own cooking squad, and all day, with the briefest intervals for rest, they have indefatigably drilled, ridden horseback, rowed, swum, ridden bicycles, groomed and watered horses, washed dishes, cookedin plain English, worked. For the thirty New York society girls who have enlisted under the banner of Capt. Candace Hewitt are as plucky as they are pretty, and, take it from your war correspondent, their courrage needs no further encomium.

"It takes the New York girl to do things!" That was my all-enveloping impression after being given the freedom of the camp by Capt. Candace, a tall, brown-eyed young woman as simple, straightforward and gently dignified as her old-fashioned name.
